Definitions

Notice of Privacy Practices (The Notice) – a written notice in compliance with the requirements of Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), made available from Mercy Medical Center to a patient or personal representative at the first delivery of service, or at the patient’s next visit following a revision to the Notice, that describes the uses and disclosures of protected health information that may be made by Mercy Medical Center and the patient’s rights and Mercy Medical Center’s legal duties with respect to protected health information.

Protected Health Information (PHI) – individually identifiable health information that is transmitted or maintained in any form or medium, including electronic media. Protected health information does not include employment records held by Mercy Medical Center in its role as an employer.

Organized Health Care Arrangement – Mercy Medical Center, an affiliate member of Catholic Health Initiatives (CHI), and other affiliated members of CHI participate in an Organized Health Care Arrangement (OHCA) in order to share health information to manage joint operational activities. A complete list of CHI affiliated members is available at www.catholichealthinitiatives.org by clicking on “Where We Are”. A paper copy is available upon request. The CHI OHCA may use and disclose your health information to provide treatment, payment, or health care operations for the affiliated members such as integrated information system management, financial and billing services, insurance, quality improvement, and risk management activities.

Mercy Medical Center participates in an OHCA to manage their joint operating activities similar to the CHI OHCA. The Mercy Medical Center OHCA may use and disclose your health information to provide treatment, payment, or health care operations to the OHCA members such as management services, integrated information system management, financial and billing services, insurance, quality improvement, and risk management activities. The members of the Medical Staff, practitioners, and Mercy have agreed to follow uniform health information practices when using or disclosing your health information while you are at Mercy, either as an inpatient or for outpatient services. This arrangement is called an organized health care arrangement. This arrangement only applies when you receive the health care services at Mercy Medical Center facilities. It does not apply to the information practices at the physician’s office or other private practices.
The organized health care arrangement includes Mercy Medical Center, the physicians and members of the Medical Staff, and the independent practitioners who have clinical privileges to practice at Mercy Medical Center.

An example of how Mercy and members of the Medical Staff and independent practitioners share your health information includes hospital committees to discuss the quality of care and ways to improve health care services to you and the community.

You will receive a Notice of Privacy Practices on behalf of Mercy, members of the Medical Staff, and independent practitioners for the health care services received by you at Mercy. You will also receive a Notice of Privacy Practices from your personal physician or practitioner that describes his or her own office information practices.

WHO WILL FOLLOW THIS NOTICE?

Mercy Medical Center, Linus Oakes, Mercy Services Corporation, Mercy Foundation, ORegon Surgery Center (ORSC), a division of Mercy Medical Center, and Centennial Medical Group (CMG), a subsidiary of Mercy Medical Center. In addition, Organized Health Care Arrangement participants, including the entire Active, Provisional, Consulting, and Courtesy Medical Staff members and the Allied Health Staff of Mercy Medical Center will follow this notice.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

For Treatment. We will use your health information to provide you with health care treatment and to coordinate or manage services with other health care providers, including third parties. We may disclose all or any portion of your health information to your attending physician, consulting physician(s), nurses, technicians, health profession students, or other facility or health care personnel who have a legitimate need for such information in order to take care of you. Different departments of the facility will share your health information in order to coordinate the health care services you need, such as prescriptions, lab work and X-rays. We may disclose your health information to family members or friends, guardians or personal representatives who are involved with your medical care. We may also use and disclose your health information to health care providers so they can receive payment for health care services that they provided to you, such as your personal physician, and other physicians involved in your medical care such as an anesthesiologist, pathologist, radiologist, or emergency physician, and ambulance services. We may also give information to other third parties or individuals who are responsible for payment for your health care, such as the named insured under the health policy who will receive an explanation of benefits (EOB) for all beneficiaries who are covered under the insured’s plan.

For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose your health information for routine facility operations, such as business planning and development, quality review of services provided, internal auditing, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities (including the licensing or credentialing activities of health care professionals), medical research and education for staff and students, assessing your satisfaction with our services, and to other healthcare entities that have a relationship with you and need the information for operational purposes. We may use and disclose your health information to the external agencies responsible for oversight of health care activities such as The Joint Commission, external quality assurance and peer review organizations, and credentialing organizations. We may also disclose health information to business associates we have contracted with to perform services for or on our behalf such as patient satisfaction survey organizations. We may also disclose your health information to medical device manufacturers or pharmaceutical companies in order for those companies to carry out their legal obligations to state and federal agencies.

Facility Directory. The facility directory is available so that your family, friends, and clergy can visit you and generally know how you are doing. We may include your name, location in the facility, your general condition (for example, fair or stable, or even the death of a person), and your religious affiliation in the facility directory. The directory information, except for your religious affiliation, may be released to people who ask for you by name. Your name and religious affiliation may be given to a member of the clergy such as a priest or rabbi, even if they don’t ask for you by name. You must notify Mercy Admission’s office at 541-677-2418 or 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR 97471 verbally or in writing if you do not want us to release information about you in the facility directory. If you do not want information released in the facility directory, we cannot tell members of the public such as flower or other delivery services or friends and family that you are here or about your general condition.

Future Communications. We may provide communications to you with newsletters or other means regarding treatment options, health related information, disease management programs, wellness programs, or other community based initiatives or activities in which our facility is participating.

Fundraising Activities. We may use your health information, or disclose your health information to a foundation related to us for Mercy Medical Center’s fundraising efforts. These funds would be used to expand and improve services and programs we provide to the community. We would only release information such as your name, address, phone number, and the dates that you received treatment or services from us. If you do not want us to contact you for fundraising efforts you must notify the Mercy Foundation at 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR, 97471 in writing, stating that you do not want to receive the information.

Research. We may use and disclose your health information to researchers either when you authorize the use and disclosure of your health information, or the Institutional Review Board and/or Privacy Board approves an authorization waiver for the use and disclosure of your health information for a research study.

Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may release your health information to organizations that handle organ procurement and transplantation or to an organ donation bank as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT ARE REQUIRED OR PERMITTED BY LAW

Subject to requirements of federal, state and local laws, we are either required or permitted to report your health information for various purposes. Some of these reporting requirements and permissions include:

Public Health Activities. We may disclose your health information to public health officials for activities related to the prevention or control of communicable disease, bioterrorism, injury or disability; to report births and deaths; to report suspected child, elder, or spouse abuse or neglect; to report reactions to medications or problems with medical products; to report information to the Centers for Disease Control or to authorized national or state cancer registries for their data aggregation.

Disaster Relief Efforts. We may disclose your health information to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort, such as the American Red Cross, so that your family can be notified about your condition and location.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Such agencies include federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, and state medical or nursing boards. These oversight activities may include audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor activities such as health care treatment and spending, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Judicial or Administrative Proceeding. We may disclose your health information in response to a legal court or administrative order, a subpoena, discovery request, civil or criminal proceedings, or other lawful process.
Law Enforcement. We may release your health information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official or if we have a legal obligation to notify the appropriate law enforcement or other agencies:

- In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar legal process;
- Regarding a victim or death of a victim of a crime in limited circumstances;
- In emergency circumstances to report a crime, the location or victims of a crime, or the identity, description or location of a person who is alleged to have committed a crime, including crimes that may occur at our facility, such as theft, drug diversion, or attempts to obtain drugs illegally.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release health information to a coroner or a medical examiner. This may be necessary to identify a person who died or to determine the cause of death. We may release health information to help a funeral director to carry out his/her duties.

Workers’ Compensation. We may release your health information for workers’ compensation benefits or similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses if you tell us that workers’ compensation is the payer for your visit(s). Your employer or their workers’ compensation carrier may request the entire medical record pertinent to your workers’ compensation claim. This medical record may include details regarding your health history, current medications you are taking, and treatments.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may disclose your health information when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another person or the public.

National Security. We may disclose your health information to federal official(s) for national security activities and for the protection of the President and other Heads of State.

Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release your health information as required by military command authorities. We may also release health information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority.

Inmates. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or in the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release your health information to the institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary for the institution to provide you with health care, to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others, or for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Other uses and disclosures of your health information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written authorization. If you provide us with authorization to use or disclose your health information, you may revoke that authorization in writing at any time. When we receive your written revocation we will no longer use or disclose your health information for the purpose of that authorization. However, we are unable to retrieve any disclosures already made based your prior authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

You have the following rights regarding your health information:

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect your health information and receive a copy of medical, billing, or other records that may be used to make decisions about your care. The right to inspect and receive a copy may not apply to psychotherapy notes that are maintained separately from the health record. Your request to inspect and receive a copy of your health information must be submitted in writing. We may charge a fee for document requests to cover the costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies.
In limited circumstances we may deny your request to inspect or receive a copy of your health information. If you are denied access to your health information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. A licensed health care professional chosen by Mercy Medical Center will review your request and the denial. The person who conducts the review will not be the same person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend. You have the right to request an amendment to your health information that you believe is incorrect or incomplete. Submit your request in writing, including your reason for the amendment, using our “Request for Amendment to PHI” form and send to Medical Records Department, 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR 97471, 541-677-2380. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. We may also deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by Mercy Medical Center, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- Is not part of the medical information kept by or for Mercy Medical Center;
- Is not part of the information that you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. We are required to maintain a list of disclosures of your health information. However, we are not required to maintain a list of disclosures that we made by acting upon your written authorizations. You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures that are not subject to your written authorization. Submit your request in writing using our “Request for Accounting of Disclosures of PHI” form and send to Medical Records Department, 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR 97471, 541-677-2380. Your request must state a time period, not longer than six years from the date of request. You may request it in electronic or paper format. The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on how much of your health information we use or disclose for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request a restriction on the disclosure of your health information to someone who is involved in your care or payment for your care, such as a family member or friend. We are not required to agree to your request. However, if we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

Submit your request in writing or request and submit a “Request for Restrictions to Use or Disclose Protected Health Information” form and send to Medical Records Department, 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR 97471, 541-677-2380. You must include: a description of the information that you want to restrict, whether you want to restrict our use or disclosure or both; and to whom you want the restriction to apply.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about health care matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at an alternative location from your home address, such as work, or only contact you by mail instead of by phone. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We do not require a reason for the request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. If you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time.
To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact Medical Records Department, 2700 Stewart Parkway, Roseburg, OR 97471, 541-677-2380. Or, you may obtain a copy of this notice at our Web site, www.mercyrose.org.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for health information we already have about you and for any information we may receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current notice in the facility and on our web site (if applicable) at www.mercyrose.org. The notice will contain the effective date. Upon your initial registration or admittance to the facility for treatment or health care services as an inpatient or outpatient, we will offer you a copy of the notice currently in effect. Whenever the notice is revised, it will be available to you upon request.

COMPLAINTS

You may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services if you believe that we have not complied with our privacy practices. You may file a complaint with us by contacting our Privacy Officer at 541-677-2406.

If you file a complaint, we will not take any action against you or change our treatment of you in any way.
